EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An Examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.
2. Authorization of this Examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Daniel A. Monaco on March 10, 2004.
3. The formal drawings filed November 9, 1999 have been approved.
4. The McCrae Declaration filed on January 30, 2003 under 37 CFR 1.132 has been received and entered.
5. The claims have been amended as follows:

Claim 32 (Currently Amended) Delete "at least about 30% amino acid sequence homology to".

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

6. The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The applicant has claimed a pharmaceutical composition and method of inhibiting angiogenesis. The amendment made to the claims was sufficient to obviate the rejections of record. In addition, a search of commercial databases did not produce any prior art that suggests or teaches all the limitations of the claimed invention as references such as Colman et al. (US Patent No. 6284726, November 10, 1998) teach a formula that does not anticipate or render obvious the claimed invention. For example, the patent discloses SEQ ID NO: 2 and 5 which has residues that fall outside the formula recited in for example, claim 1 and there is no motivation to add the additional residues. Further, applicant filed the McCrae Declaration which states on the record that applicant intends the N and C terminal truncation to mean sequential or consecutive cuts in the sequence to result in at least one residue Gly or Leu, thus, the cited prior art of record does not teach the specific orientation (and as shown in the sequence listing of the instant application). Thus, the claimed invention is novel and nonobvious over the prior art of record.

7. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance".
